

The National Justice Council creates a LGPD Working Group

22.10.2020 1 min read

Authors

Felipe Palhares

Gisela Sampaio da Cruz
Guedes

Brazil's National Justice Council has created a Working Group to carry out studies and draw up proposals on how to bring the country's courts into compliance with the LGPD.

Created by Directive (Portaria) 212/20, the Working Group has 16 members, who include judges, lawyers and professors. The group has until mid-January 2021 to present its first report.

Related areas

Data Privacy and Cybersecurity

To support its work, the Working Group can hold public hearings and consultations, as well as seminars and lectures.

Topics

Data Privacy and Cybersecurity

Felipe Palhares Gisela Sampaio

Felipe Schwartzman

This content belongs to the "Data Privacy Newsletter - Brazil's Senate approves the Directors appointed to the National Data Protection Authority and more news". Click on the title to read the whole content. Would you like to have our content delivered directly to your inbox? Sign up here.

Photo: Pressfoto/Freepik

› PROFESSIONALS

Professionals who combine legal insight and market perspective

Felipe Palhares

Gisela Sampaio da Cruz Guedes