We are delighted to present our new partners: Leonardo Carneiro (Corporate and M&A), Natalia Yazbek (Restructuring and Insolvency), Pedro Henrique Serqueira (Corporate and M&A) and Pedro Vergely (Dispute Resolution).

Leonardo Carneiro joined the Corporate and M&A team in 2012. He has extensive experience in corporate reorganizations, M&A transactions and joint ventures. He also acts in corporate disputes and in negotiating and drafting contracts and commercial agreements. The clients he represents include major Brazilian companies and multinationals doing business in various economic sectors, such as infrastructure, energy, and health.

A member of the Restructuring and Insolvency team, Natalia Yazbek joined BMA in 2017. She advises Brazilian and international clients, including banks, investors, bondholders, trustees and other fiduciary agents, members of management, shareholders, and distressed businesses in insolvency situations in general, including restructurings under court-approved plans, bankruptcies, debt restructurings, security agreements and enforcement, and distressed asset acquisitions.

Since joining BMA in 2011, Pedro Henrique Serqueira has been part of the firm's Corporate and M&A practice, acting in mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, investments and divestments, debt restructurings, and commercial agreements in general. He also advises on corporate disputes and corporate law matters.

Pedro Vergely, who has been with BMA for more than eight years, strengthens our Dispute Resolution practice with notable experience in acting for clients in corporate disputes, particularly in matters related to M&A and corporate law. He represents major Brazilian companies and multinationals doing business in various economic sectors, such as finance, tourism, pharmaceuticals, auto, retail, agribusiness, and food and beverages

These promotions reinforce BMA's commitment to the development of our team, and represent a new phase in these practitioners' careers, recognizing their dedication and consistently excellent work over the years.

Congratulations and much success to all four new partners!
