Recognition

The Chambers High Net Worth 2026 guide once again ranked BMA in Band 1 for Private Wealth Law, the highest distinction awarded by the publication.

Published by Chambers and Partners, the guide identifies leading firms and practitioners in the private wealth field based on factors such as expertise, the complexity of matters handled, and feedback from clients and peers.

In addition to the firm's ranking, BMA Tax partners were also individually recognized in this year's edition. Hermano A. C. Notaroberto Barbosa retained his Band 1 ranking for the seventh consecutive year, while Debora Bacellar joins the guide's rankings for the first time.

This recognition reflects the sustained excellence of BMA's Wealth and Succession Planning practice and the trust placed in our team by clients and the market.
