Recognition

We are proud to share that BMA has been recognized at the Latin American Lawyer Women Awards 2025 in the institutional category Law Firm of the Year – Corporate M&A. The awards ceremony took place last Wednesday, May 21, in São Paulo.

This is the fifth award our Corporate/M&A team has received over the past year – a testament to our commitment to delivering innovative legal solutions to complex challenges.

The publication published in the BMA with the following mention:

“The law firm has solidified its position as a leader in Brazil’s M&A sector, consistently delivering strategic counsel to both domestic and international clients across a wide array of industries. The firm’s multidisciplinary approach and deep understanding of complex regulatory environments enabled it to navigate high-stakes transactions effectively.”
