It's an honor to share this nomination with our peers, in a venue dedicated to recognizing outstanding women practitioners, and important initiatives to support the development of the national legal market and best practices in diversity and inclusion.

We are very proud of the practitioners who have been nominated, and of all the women who make up BMA and are essential to our firm's development. We are also proud of the work done over the year by BMA Diversity, BMA Inspiration, and BMA Women, which have undertaken actions that have social impact within and outside the firm, resulting in nominations in so many categories.
