Once again, BMA has been recognized as an Elite Firm in the Latin Lawyer 250, reinforcing its position among the leading law firms in Latin America.

The guide features the region's leading law firms based on an editorial analysis that considers factors such as quality of service, involvement in relevant cases and transactions, client relationships, and consistency in the legal market.

In its editorial, Latin Lawyer highlights the consistently high quality of BMA's services, our participation in some of the most significant transactions in the Brazilian market, and our ability to bring together multidisciplinary teams to address the diverse needs of our clients.

In this edition, BMA was recognized as Elite in 19 practice areas: Administrative Law; Antitrust & Competition; Arbitration; Banking & Finance; Capital Markets; Corporate and M&A; Data, Technology and Privacy Law; Environment; Environmental, Social & Governance; Intellectual Property; Labour; Litigation; Private Equity; Pro Bono; Project Finance & Infrastructure; Real Estate & Tourism; Restructuring & Insolvency; Sport & Entertainment; and Tax.

The guide also highlighted some of the firm's initiatives, such as BMA InspirAção, our social responsibility program that brings together volunteer work and pro bono legal assistance; BMA Educação, focused on the development of our professionals; and diversity and inclusion initiatives aimed at expanding opportunities and fostering an increasingly diverse and inclusive workplace.

We congratulate the entire BMA Team on this achievement, which reflects the dedication of our professionals and a legal practice that combines excellence, collaboration, and the ability to keep pace with the challenges and transformations of the market.
