

BMA is recognized as Elite in the GCR 100 2026

01.12.2025 1 min read

Topics

Recognition

We are pleased to share that BMA has once again been recognized as Elite by the GCR 100 2026, one of the most respected global rankings evaluating leading Competition Law practices around the world.

The GCR 100, an annual publication by Global Competition Review, highlights firms that stand out for their technical excellence, strategic capabilities, and consistent performance in complex cases with significant economic impact, bringing together the top references in competition practice across various jurisdictions.

This recognition reinforces the consistency of our work in challenging transactions, the trust of our clients, and BMA's prominent position among the leading competition practices in the country.