

BMA is recognized at the IEL Awards for its Diversity & Inclusion efforts

21.11.2025 1 min read

Topics

Recognition

We are pleased to share that BMA has been Highly Commended at the IEL Awards, in the Diversity & Inclusion Programme category. The award, organized by the International Employment Lawyer (IEL), recognises law firm Diversity & Inclusion programmes that stand out for their impact and commitment to promoting more just, inclusive, and representative workplaces.

Receiving this international recognition reinforces the significance of the initiatives BMA has been developing to expand diversity, promote equity, and strengthen a culture of inclusion across all areas of the firm. This is an important milestone that highlights the engagement of our teams and demonstrates our institutional commitment to consistent and transformative practices.

We congratulate every professional who contributes, with daily dedication, to building a plural, welcoming environment that truly reflects our values.