

BMA is recognized in Chambers Brazil Transactional 2024

24.10.2024 1 min read

Topics

Recognition

Chambers Brazil Transactional 2024 highlights the work of BMA and our practitioners. The guide recognizes the country's most respected law firms and lawyers in their respective practice areas, focusing on the transactional area.

In this stage, BMA has been ranked in 9 areas: Banking & Finance, Capital Markets: Debt, Capital Markets: Equity, Corporate/M&A: The Elite, Crisis Management, Environmental, Social & Governance (ESG), Investment Funds, Real Estate and Tax Non-contentious: The Elite.

In addition to the recognitions given to our practice areas, the awards highlighted 14 professionals for their work throughout the year: Camila Goldberg (Banking & Finance, Capital Markets: Debt, Capital Markets: Equity e Environmental, Social & Governance - ESG); Jane Goldman Nusbaum (Capital Markets: Debt, Capital Markets: Equity e Investment Funds); Amir Bocayuva, Ana Paula Reis, Francisco Müssnich, Luiz Antonio de Sampaio Campos, Monique Mavignier e Paulo Cezar Aragão (Corporate/M&A); Márcio Pereira (Environmental, Social & Governance - ESG); Cristiana Moreira (Real Estate); Hermano Notaroberto Barbosa, José Otavio Faloppa, Luis Henrique Costa e Thais de Barros Meira (Tax Non-Contentious).

This edition, focused on the transactional area, marks the final release in the annual research cycle of Chambers Brazil, which also includes Chambers Brazil: Contentious, Chambers Brazil: Industries & Sectors, and Chambers Brazil: Regions.

The recognitions achieved throughout this release cycle of Chambers Brazil 2024 underscore our commitment to excellence. In total, we have been recognized in 30 practice areas and industry sectors, with 64 individual recognitions awarded.

We are proud to congratulate our team on this most recent achievement!

Clickn here and find out more.