In a special year in which we celebrate 30 years of history, BMA maintains its strong presence in Chambers Brazil: Transactional 2025, the final chapter of the prestigious British guide that highlights the most respected law firms and professionals in Brazil in transactional areas.

In total, 9 practice areas and 14 professionals from the firm were recognized in this edition.

We were ranked in: Banking & Finance, Capital Markets: Debt, Capital Markets: Equity, Corporate/M&A: The Elite, Crisis Management, Environmental, Social & Governance (ESG), Investment Funds, Real Estate, and Tax: Non-contentious: The Elite.

The following professionals are individually recognized in the guide: Amir Bocayuva Cunha, Ana Paula Reis, Camila Goldberg, Cristiana Moreira, Francisco Antunes Maciel Müssnich (Chico Müssnich), Hermano A. C. Notaroberto Barbosa, Jane Goldman Nusbaum, José Otavio Haddad Faloppa, Luis Henrique Costa, Luiz Antonio de Sampaio Campos, Márcio Pereira, Monique Mavignier, Paulo Cezar Aragão, and Thais de Barros Meira.

This edition, which concludes the 2025 Chambers Brazil research cycle, reaffirms BMA's position among the most complete and highly regarded law firms in the country.

Across the four editions — Contentious, Industries & Sectors, Regions, and Transactional — more than 30 practice areas and industry sectors were highlighted, and we received over 60 individual recognitions.

Celebrating our 30th anniversary with results like this is a source of pride and inspiration to continue enhancing our work and transforming complex challenges into innovative legal solutions.

Congratulations to the entire BMA team for yet another outstanding achievement!
