

BMA is recognized in Chambers Global 2023

16.02.2023 1 min read

Topics

Recognition

We have been recognized once again in the latest edition of Chambers Global, Chambers and Partners' guide to outstanding law firms and lawyers around the world.

In this edition, BMA is ranked in 13 practice areas, including our new ESG and Management Crisis practices, created in 2022 to reinforce our multidisciplinary approach and ability to deliver excellent services. In addition to the recognition won by our firm, 26 practitioners are highlighted in the guide.

BMA is recommended in: Capital Markets, Corporate/M&A (Foreign Expertise) – France, Corporate/M&A: Elite, Crisis Management, Dispute Resolution: Arbitration, Dispute Resolution: Litigation, ESG, Intellectual Property: Patent, Intellectual Property: Trademark, Copyright & Trademark, International & Cross-Border Capabilities, Media & Entertainment, Tax Litigation: Highly Regarded and Tax Non-Contentious: Elite.

The BMA lawyers who were individually recognized are: Amir Bocayuva Cunha, Ana Paula Reis, André Abbud, Antonella Carminatti, Camila Goldberg, Dominique Walter, Felipe Galea, Francisco Müssnich (Chico), Gustavo Kulesza, Hermano Notaroberto Barbosa, Iara Conrado, Jane Goldman Nusbaum, João Bonvicino, José Otavio Faloppa, Luis Henrique Costa, Luiz Antonio de Sampaio Campos, Luiz Fernando Fraga, Luiza Lacerda, Márcio Pereira, Maurício Faro, Monique Mavignier, Paulo Cezar Aragão, Pedro Costa, Pedro Frankovsky Barroso, Thais de Barros Meira and Vitor Butruce.

We are delighted with this recognition, which consolidates BMA's position as a reference in various practices areas surveyed in this prestigious guide.

Congratulations to all for their dedication and consistently excellent work!

Click here to access the Chambers Global 2023 guide.