Recognition

Chambers High Net Worth 2025, the international guide to the best law firms and practitioners around the world in the area of Wealth and Succession Planning, has awarded to the top rank – Band 1 – to BMA in Private Wealth Law for the sixth consecutive year.

Once again, our partner Hermano Notaroberto Barbosa was ranked in Band 1, reflecting his exceptional ability and leadership in the Wealth and Succession Planning market in Brazil.

The Chambers guides are based on in-depth surveys conducted with clients and peers in the legal sector, covering criteria such as legal knowledge, diligence, strategic vision, and quality of service.

Congratulations to all our Wealth and Succession Planning practitioners and especially our partner Hermano Notaroberto Barbosa on this newest achievement. The top ranking in the guide reflects the competence, consistency and dedication that drive our work.
