We are proud to share that BMA has once again been recognized in Chambers Brazil: Transactional, a prestigious international guide highlighting the country's leading law firms and lawyers in transactional practice areas.

A total of 10 practice areas and 15 professionals from the firm were recognized in this edition.

Recognized practice areas: Banking & Finance, Capital Markets: Debt, Capital Markets: Equity, Corporate/M&A: The Elite, Crisis Management, Environmental, Social & Governance (ESG), Investment Funds, Labour & Employment: Non-contentious, Real Estate, and Tax Non-contentious: The Elite.

In this Chambers research cycle, we highlight the debut of the Labour & Employment: Non-contentious category, which now joins our list of recognized practice areas, with institutional recognition for BMA and partners Cibelle Linero and Fernanda Nasciutti.

The following professionals were individually recognized in the guide: Amir Bocayuva Cunha, Camila Goldberg, Chico Müssnich, Cristiana Moreira, Fernanda Nasciutti, Hermano Notaroberto Barbosa, Jane Goldman Nusbaum, José Otavio Faloppa, Luis Henrique Conceição Costa, Luiz Antonio de Sampaio Campos, Márcio Pereira, Monique Mavignier, Paulo Cezar Aragão, and Thais de Barros Meira.

This edition, focused on transactional practices, concludes Chambers Brazil's annual research cycle, which also includes the Chambers Brazil: Contentious, Chambers Brazil: Industries & Sectors, and Chambers Brazil: Regions guides.

The results achieved throughout the Chambers Brazil 2026 cycle reaffirm BMA's prominent position in the Brazilian legal market and reflect the technical excellence and strength of our work across different areas of law. In total, 34 practice areas and industry sectors were recognized, along with approximately 54 individual recognitions, demonstrating the strength of our teams' work and the recognition our professionals have earned in the market.

Congratulations to the entire BMA team on this achievement!
