Recognition

With great pride, we announce that BMA has once again been recognized at the Legal 500 Brazil Awards, one of the most prestigious accolades in the legal sector, celebrating the most influential and innovative players in the Brazilian and international markets. The awards ceremony took place on February 24, in São Paulo.

Institutional recognition:

- Environment Law Firm of the Year

In addition, we received an important individual recognition:

- Fernanda Nasciutti – Labour Next Generation Partner of the Year

This achievement reinforces the continued recognition of our team's technical excellence, strategic vision, and commitment—especially within the Environmental practice—and further highlights Fernanda Nasciutti's outstanding performance in the Labor practice.

We congratulate all professionals involved on this important milestone for the firm.
