

International Tax Review names BMA partners as references in Brazil

24.09.2020 1 min read

Authors

José Otavio Haddad Faloppa

Lígia Regini

Maurício Pereira Faro

Thais de Barros Meira

Vivian Casanova

Topics

Recognition Tax

We have been highlighted in the most recent editions of the International Tax Review (ITR) guides to the most respected Tax lawyers. The guides are Women in Tax Leaders; Tax Controversy Leaders; Indirect Tax Leaders; and Tax Leaders (partnering with Expert Guides).

To identify the top tax practitioners, ITR conducts extensive peer surveys in the national and international legal markets, as well as taking into account client feedback.

For us at BMA, this recognition underlines the excellence we strive for and the constant dedication of our lawyers to continue growing professionally and inspiring our clients' trust.

The BMA partners recognized by ITR are:

Women in Tax Leaders:

Lígia Regini da Silveira

Luiza Sampaio de Lacerda

Vivian Casanova Eskenazi

Tax Controversy Leaders:

Lígia Regini da Silveira

Luiza Sampaio de Lacerda

Mauricio Pereira Faro

Vivian Casanova Eskenazi

Indirect Tax Leaders:

João Paulo Cavinatto

Tax Leaders:

Daniel Abraham Loria

José Otávio Faloppa

Thais de Barros Meira

Vivian Casanova Eskenazi

Click here to see the complete list.

› PROFESSIONALS

Professionals who combine legal insight and market perspective

José Otavio Haddad Faloppa

Lígia Regini

Maurício Pereira Faro

Thais de Barros Meira

Vivian Casanova