

IPO by XP Inc, with BMA as counsel, wins LatinFinance Award

29.01.2021 1 min read

Authors

Amir Achcar Bocayuva Cunha

Camila Goldberg

Felipe Prado

XP Inc.'s initial public offering on Nasdaq, with legal support from BMA's Corporate and Financial and Capital Markets teams, is one of the winners in LatinFinance's 2020 Deals of the Year Awards.

The transaction, which is considered the second largest IPO by a Brazilian company in Nasdaq's history, took the prize in the category Initial Public Offering of the Year. Representing BMA, partners Amir Bocayuva, Camila Goldberg and Felipe Prado and associates Bryan Klein, Karina Lerner, Mateus Camarotti and Renata Medina took part in the transaction.

Topics

Recognition Corporate and M&A
Finance and Capital Markets

In deciding on the winning transactions, LatinFinance took into consideration the complexity of each transaction and its importance for the market.

Being present at significant achievements by our clients and for the market is an honor for us at BMA, and part of our tradition. We are delighted at the recognition won by XP Inc.'s IPO.

Click here for more information on the "2020 Deals of the Year Awards".

› PROFESSIONALS

Professionals who combine legal insight and market perspective

Amir Achcar Bocayuva Cunha

Camila Goldberg

Felipe Prado