Recognition

We are delighted that our partner José Inácio Ferraz de Almeida Prado Filho and our associate Guilherme Morgulis, both members of BMA's Competition practice, have been recognized by Client Choice, the guide to legal professionals who stand out for the excellence of their client service and the quality of their work.

José Inácio was named in the category Competition in Brazil and Guilherme Morgulis in Investigations in Brazil. They were the only practitioners listed in their respective categories.

Client Choice Awards are based on practitioners' performance and their ability to add value to their clients' businesses. In this edition, more than 2000 clients were surveyed on aspects such as quality of work, strategic thinking, effective communication, project management, and ethics.

Congratulations to our practitioners on this important achievement, which reflects the care and excellent service given to our clients every day. Recognition such as this inspires us to continue deliver creative, innovative solutions that meet and exceed our clients' expectations.
