BMA Review #69 deals with economic recovery in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic and other topics; read it here

23.10.2020 2 min read

Authors

Ana Cândida de Mello Carvalho

Anna Carolina Malta Spilborghs

Cibelle Linero

Márcio Pereira

Marcos Exposto

Vitor Butruce

Topics

Compliance, Investigations and Regulatory Enforcement | Environmental, Climate and Mining | Tax | Labor and Employment | Data Privacy and Cybersecurity | Infrastructure and Regulatory & Government Affairs | Dispute Resolution | BMA Review | Competition Law | COVID-19

The 69th edition of BMA Review contains articles dealing with up-to-the-minute issues that can have a direct impact on your business. Our specialists look at how Brazil's economy is recovering from the most restrictive phase of the measures to contain the advance of Covid-19. The challenges of returning to in-person work, the risks associated with conducting internal investigations during the pandemic, and investment in infrastructure as an ally in the effort to revive the economy are just some of the topics in this new edition.

Read the full edition, or scroll down to look at each article. Just click on the title to read each article. If you have any questions, please contact us. Happy reading!

- An extra dose of solidarity in the fight against Covid-19

Solidarity has grown during the Covid-19 pandemic, and the same is true at BMA.

- Opportunities and challenges in the use of electronic signatures on business documents

Vitor Butruce looks at how businesses need to adapt to electronic environments and the new ways people work and interact in a digital era.

- Investment in infrastructure: kick-starting a return to economic growth in Brazil

Ana Cândida de Mello Carvalho writes about the importance of attracting investment to Brazil's infrastructure sector, and some of the initiatives the government is working on.

- Brazil's antitrust authority monitors digital markets consultation to obtain information on transactions carried out by technology companies over the last 10 years.

Marcos Exposto and Amanda Barelli examine CADE's wide-ranging market

- Consumption tax reform moves forward towards a VAT

Daniel Loria and João Paulo Cavinatto explain the need for reform in the Brazilian tax system – and the implications of reform.

- Towards a bioeconomy

Márcio Pereira and Beatriz Paulo de Frontin talk about research and development focusing on the genetic and biochemical composition of biodiversity, with a view to developing marketable products.

- Back to work: on-site work and hybrid schemes

Cibelle Linero and Luiz Marcelo Góis comment on the return to in-person work, the challenges that businesses face, and the steps they can take to meet those challenges.

- Risks in conducting internal investigations during the pandemic

Anna Carolina Malta Spilborghs and João Bonvicino discuss the negative effects on the pandemic on internal corporate investigations, and the use of technology in phases that used to be conducted in person.

Would you like to receive our newsletters direct to your inbox? Sign up here.

› PROFESSIONALS

Professionals who combine legal insight and market perspective

Ana Cândida de Mello Carvalho

Anna Carolina Malta Spilborghs

Cibelle Linero

Márcio Pereira

Marcos Exposto

Vitor Butruce