The award, organized by the Global Restructuring Review, from the Law Business Research group, recognized our Restructuring and Insolvency area in the Latin America Practice of the Year category for the excellent work developed over the last year. Our partner Eduardo Wanderley was present at the awards ceremony, which took place in London, representing the entire team.

We extend our congratulations to all our Restructuring and Insolvency practitioners for their outstanding work over the past year and their constant efforts to find innovative solutions to our clients' challenges.
