China Desk

Personalized legal support for international investors in Brazil.

BMA has designed initiatives to assist clients and prospects in various sectors of the economy, and we regularly act as the first point of contact for clients who are interested in opportunities for investment in the Brazilian market.

BMA China Desk was created to respond to the specific needs of Chinese investors in Brazil.

Our team works to create close ties with Chinese investors planning to come to the Brazilian market, or already established here, offering legal advice for their investments and support for the development of their businesses in Brazil.

BMA China Desk brings together attorneys specializing in various areas of the law. Each member has vast experience in providing legal support and advice in international matters, acquired over years of assisting companies in transactions and negotiations in Brazil and other countries around the world.

We have constructed a solid reputation as a pioneering, innovative law firm that provides clients with creative solutions adapted to the fundamental questions of their businesses.

We assist clients from various sectors of the economy, and we are often the first point of contact for clients who are interested in investing in Brazil.
