Professional experience

Aécio Filipe has experience with both domestic and international commercial arbitration. He has represented clients in arbitrations involving corporate, mining, telecommunication and contract issues before international institutions, such as the ICC, AAA and all major Brazilian arbitral institutions, including CAM/CCBC, CIESP/FIESP, CAMARB and FGV. He is an Assistant Editor at Kluwer Arbitration Blog, Regional Coordinator (São Paulo) at the Brazilian Arbitration Committee - CBAr and part of the list of arbitrators of the AMCHAM Center for Arbitration and Mediation and the Business Mediation and Arbitration Chamber of the Commercial Association - CEMAAC. He is also the author of the book "L'exécution des mesures à titre provisoire rendues par un tribunal arbitral situé à l'étranger", published by L'Harmattan in Paris.

He worked as an international visiting attorney with the international arbitration group of Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP, in London, and Herbert Smith Freehills in Paris. He is trained in French and Brazilian law and graduated from the Université de Paris I: Panthéon-Sorbonne with honors (Master's degree in International Private Law and International Commerce, cum laude, 2018). Aécio obtained equivalence of his master's degree held at the Université de Paris I: Panthéon-Sorbonne before Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais (UFMG). He took part of his thesis' research at Universität Hamburg, Germany, as a visiting researcher.

He holds a bachelor's degree in Brazilian Law from Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais (UFMG) (LL.B., 2017). During his undergraduate studies he has spent time at Université de Lille II: Droit et Santé, France and at University of Saskatchewan, Canada. Aécio is recipient of the "Arbitration Academy 2017 Scholarship" and the "Emerging Leaders in America Program Scholarship".
