

PARTNER

José Otavio Haddad Faloppa

José Otavio Faloppa is one of BMA's Tax partners. He represents clients in matters related to corporate taxation, debt restructuring, and corporate and business reorganizations. He also has significant experience in taxation in the debt and equity markets, M&A transactions, foreign investment in Brazil, and Brazilian investment abroad.

LANGUAGES

Portuguese, English

INFORMATION AND CONTACT

 Vcard

 Resume

 55 11 2179-5234

 jof@bmalaw.com.br

OAB

OAB/SP n° 190.438

Practice Areas

Private Equity

Tax

Wealth and Succession Planning

Professional experience

His clients include large national and international businesses doing business in a wide variety of sectors, including finance, real estate, energy, telecommunications, and mining, as well as private equity funds and individuals.

Currently, José Otavio coordinates BMA's Tax practice. He is also a member of BMA's Steering Committee, participating actively in matters related to the firm's management.

Education

LL.B., Pontifícia Universidade Católica de São Paulo - PUC/SP (2000).

Recognitions

José Otavio is recognized for his work in Tax Law by important legal publications such as ITR World Tax, Chambers Global, Chambers Brazil, Legal 500, Latin Lawyer, Expert Guides and Lexology Index.

"José Otavio is attentive, responsive, and proactive in addressing our legal needs. His dedication to providing exceptional service ensures that we feel supported and valued throughout our interactions."

"His in-depth knowledge and expertise in complex legal matters, such as tax consulting and corporate restructuring, has been instrumental in delivering effective solutions tailored to our specific requirements." "His ability to anticipate market trends and identify opportunities enhances our decision-making process and contributes to our overall business success." – Chambers Brazil