Professional experience

Sergio has acquired significant experience in making deals that involve businesses in financial distress and, when necessary, litigating under such circumstances. He has acted in some of the most important business reorganization proceedings in Brazil since the Brazilian Business Reorganization and Bankruptcy Law was enacted in 2005, including the largest-ever restructuring case in Latin America (as counsel for a group in the telecommunications sector), which involved parallel proceedings in various jurisdictions such as the Netherlands, the United States, England and Portugal.

Education

Doctorate in Civil Law – Universidade do Estado do Rio de Janeiro – UERJ (2010).

LL.M in International Legal Studies – New York University School of Law (2007).

LL.M. in Civil Law – Universidade do Estado do Rio de Janeiro – UERJ (2004).

Specialization in Civil Procedural Law – Universidade Cândido Mendes – UCAM (2001).

LL.B. – Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro – UFRJ (2000).

Associations

Sergio Savi is President of the Special Committee on Judicial, Extrajudicial Reorganization and Bankruptcy of the Brazilian Bar Association in the state of Rio de Janeiro (OAB/RJ) for the 2025–2027 term, and a member of the International Insolvency Institution and TMA – Turnaround Management Association.

Recognitions

Sergio Savi is frequently recommended as one of the top lawyers in the area of Restructuring and Insolvency by well-known legal directories such as Chambers Brazil, Legal 500, Lexology Index, GRR - Global Restructuring Review and IFLR 1000. He also won a Client Choice Awards 2016 – Bankruptcy & Insolvency, awarded by the International Law Office – ILO to lawyers who stand out for their service to clients.

"Sergio understands the clients' needs easily. He's been in several complex insolvency cases and is recognised for his work." – Chambers Brasil
